STATEMENT OF FACTS

On June 8, 2008, at approximately 1040 hours, Natanahel TORRES-Tena entered the United States from the Republic of Mexico at the San Ysidro Port of Entry, San Ysidro, California. TORRES was the driver and sole occupant of a black 1999 Honda Accord displaying Baja California, Mexico license plate number BDZ7902.

TORRES was escorted to the secondary inspection area because U.S. Customs and Border Protection Canine Enforcement Officer (CBP-CEO) Sigfredo Delgado, while conducting a cursory inspection of the vehicle in the pre-primary area, noticed there was a screw missing in the dashboard of the vehicle. CBP-CEO Delgado screened the vehicle with his assigned Narcotic/Human Detector Dog (NHDD) "UNITED" (U03). NHDD "UNITED" alerted to the dashboard area of the vehicle. Inspection of the vehicle resulted in the discovery and seizure of 2 packages found in a specially built compartment in the dashboard of the vehicle. The packages contained a substance that field tested positive for methamphetamine and had a combined weight of approximately 0.95 kilograms.

Post Miranda, TORRES stated that he was pre-paid $400.00 U.S. Currency to cross the narcotic laden vehicle into the U.S. and deliver the said vehicle to the Plaza De Las Americas shopping center. TORRES stated that he thought he was crossing marijuana because it is more common.

FRAS
